Tokyo Century Becomes a Constituent of the “FTSE Blossom Japan Index”

Tokyo Century Corporation has become a constituent of the FTSE Blossom Japan Index.

The FTSE Blossom Japan Index is designed to provide market participants with a tool to identify and measure the performance of Japanese companies that demonstrate strong Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices, created by FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider. The index is constructed to be industry neutral compared with the Japanese equity market represented by the FTSE Japan Index.

FTSE Russell measures companies demonstrating strong Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices, including corporate governance, health & safety, anti-corruption, climate change and others. FTSE Blossom Japan Index includes constituent companies which satisfy transparent standards with respect to Environmental, Social and Governance practices based on the ESG criteria.

Tokyo Century has been selected for a constituent of FTSE4Good Index Series, one of the world’s well-established Socially Responsible Investment (SRI) indices and the parent index of the FTSE Blossom Japan Index, for 6th straight year since 2012. The FTSE4Good Series has been designed to help investors and other market participants to incorporate Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) considerations in their investment, and used by investors as performance benchmark which identify companies with excellent ESG risk management.
